

Notice of a Data Incident

CCRM Practice, LLC d/b/a Colorado Center for Reproductive Medicine (“CCRM”, “we”, or “us”) values and respects the privacy of its patient information. On June 24, 2026, CCRM discovered that unknown third party accessed one of our employee’s email accounts. Upon discovering the incident, we promptly began an internal investigation and secured the account. The investigation determined that a third party had access to a limited number of emails in the email account for a short period of time on June 24, 2026.

A review of the emails determined they contained personal information of certain individuals. Depending on the individual, the personal information may include their name, address, date of birth, medical treatment information, and/or health insurance policy information. We have mailed notification letters to individuals whose information was in the files and for whom we have a valid address.

Notified individuals should refer to the notice they receive in the mail for the steps they can take to protect themselves. Additionally, we have arranged complimentary credit monitoring services for all potentially involved individuals. Although we have no evidence that any information may have been misused as a result of this incident, as a general matter we recommend individuals remain vigilant about protecting themselves against potential fraud and identity theft. As a precautionary measure individuals can review their account statements and monitor credit reports. If individuals detect any suspicious activity on an account, they should promptly notify the financial institution or the company that maintains the account. Individuals should also promptly report any fraudulent activity or any suspected incidents of identity theft to proper law enforcement authorities, including the police and their state’s attorney general. Notified individuals may also wish to review the tips provided by the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) on fraud alerts, security/credit freezes and steps that they can take to avoid identity theft. For more information and to contact the FTC, please visit www.ftc.gov/idtheft or call 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338). Notified individuals may also contact the FTC at: Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.
